

Citizen of the Year 2011

The 2011 Citizen of the Year Award is sponsored by Craftmaster Furniture, Schneider Mills and the Town of Taylorsville. We thank them for their support of this award. This year's recipient will also serve as the Grand Marshal for the 2011 Christmas Parade which will be held on Saturday, December 3, 2011.

Of the many nominations that were submitted for the 2011 Citizen of the Year there was one nominee that stood out among all for their dedication to the needs of the community and their many years of community service.

This year's recipient demonstrates their dedication to the community, their family & friends, their church, their coworkers and their profession each day through leadership, service and a deep caring for the people of Alexander County.

This year's recipient is known in the community not only as a leader, but also as a "great guy". He is always willing to drop what he is doing and lend a hand when someone is in need. He has a calming effect on people and has a "we can work through it" attitude. He is good to his customers and employees. He is known to treat them like they are family.

Citizen of the Year 2011

This year's recipient has spent his life working directly with the Alexander County Community. He is dedicated to his Church. To name a few, he has served on the Chamber of Commerce Board, the YMCA Board, the Alexander County Hospital Board, the North Carolina State Employees Retirement Board and the Taylorsville Savings Bank Board. He has been the Hiddenite Ruritan of the Year and has won the Howard Kever Citizenship Award. He participated in Leadership Alexander and is currently active with Crimestoppers and the United Way Board. Additionally, he has been active in the Hiddenite Volunteer Fire Department for over 30 years and has served as the Fire Chief since 2005.

Our recipient has been a lifelong resident of the Hiddenite Community along with his Wife of 36 years. He has 2 children and 1 Granddaughter. And we cannot leave out that he LOVES to play GOLF!

It is my pleasure to introduce the 2011 Citizen of the Year,
Mr. Tim Kever.
